

I feel that it is in the consumers rights and interests to have the option and the availability of satellite broadcasts that provide a locally oriented content. Information and broadcasts such as traffic and weather alerts provide the city and states a method of keeping down freeway and road conjection. Having these services available to XM subscribers is warranted. Removing these services is a violation of the first amendment. Myself and others like me will fight until the end for our rights!